Features from the First Annual Art Walk

Maurice Borho transported material with a home-made wood semi-transporter with logs to haul, brought stained canes that were found along the sandbars of Edgewood, and even home-made coat racks made from brand new horseshoes and a cedar frame.

Emerson Coatsworth with his unique artistry.

Millie McFarlane showed us her inspiring artwork of beautiful flowers, animals and landscapes that were made with stunning colors, art that really captures moments in time.

Maya Welti from Maya's Originals with just some of her creations....

Christmas is coming, these items would make unique gifts and we could support our local artists!
