

Mark your calendars because Mother's Day is coming up on Sunday, May 8th!

With that, here are some meaningful gift ideas to inspire you and help make this one extra special:

- Book an experience.
- Buy a digital course in something she loves.
- Pass on a copy of a book you love or that changed your life (write something on the inside cover for her).
- Make her a voucher book.
- Write a list of short stories about experiences you've shared.
- Book a class together.
- Sign her up for a subscription box that nurtures something she is passionate about.
- Make her dinner.

We hope this got your creative juices flowing and that you feel more prepared and inspired for this upcoming Mother's Day!
