REMEMBRANCE DAY Celebrations

Once again, we honour our soldiers for their service in the arm forces. These brave men have paid the price for freedom, democracy we have taken for granted. Northern American has been extremely peaceful considering other places in the world, where there are unrelentless number of wars and a constant sound of bombs filling the air, everywhere there are cries of children and adults. View statistic below on lives lost during the wars. This is the ultimate sacrifice a person can make for his country and fellow man. Respect to all the members of the Canadian Army Forces past and present. The veterans that have given their lives in service for their country. The country honour you in keeping the values you have bravely fought and died for.
