Community Exhibition of local Artisans for all to enjoy!

The Spring Art Show on March 16th was a great hit with over 40 guests attending from Nakusp, Fauquier and the Edgewood community. Artists from the art classes in Fauquier and Edgewood took pleasure in the creative atmosphere. The exhibit of art confirmed how much local artistic talent there is.

More than 35 works of art, ranging from post-card sized, to life size paintings, from local artists Maya Welti, Lorraine Wied, Maureen Demanuele, Millie McFarlane, Bill Likus, Drew Harris and new artist - Bonnie Spence were exhibited. Dale Beattie had several unique hand-carved wood frames; Cathy Watson's pottery, Frank Appleton's first wood sculpture and Dave Buchroeder's collection of three dimensional photo wood art were also on display. Ryan Larue displayed his stained glass creations. Maya Welti, a fibre artist with over 15 years of teaching experience, has been hosting a local art class with many of her students displaying their art. She also brought "pastels", felts and pottery.

The success of this event was truly a team effort. Many thanks to; Margaret Williams for her pie and cookies, Dale Beattie for the novel art shelves, ECIS Director Ryan Larue who thought of the idea to display art at The Edge, Megan Vanderploeg for remodelling, Asia Petis for inventory, display cards and brochures, Carlene Enge for editing, Gaylene MacCreadie for painting, Finlay Charles-Lundaahl for the posters, Colleen and Lawrence Marshall for distributing posters.
