ECIS Wins New Director!

The Edgewood Community Internet Society would like to welcome their newest Interim Director, Robin Jordan. Robin has been an amazing volunteer and asset to The Edge, and has graciously accepted the position of Treasurer. Congratulations ECIS Directors, and Congratulations to Robin, who is sure to do a great job!

CAP Excitement

Final funding for 2003/2004 has been received, for our 50 cap sites

Welcome HRSDC

We would like to take this opportunity to introduce The Columbia River- A Legacy CD Series project team. This is a Job Creation Partnership Program sponsored by HRSDC. This project involves the production of a series of CD's based on the Columbia River, it's communities, culture and history. The project team members are Jennie Jones- Youth New Media Development Support, Christina Hilborne -Youth Research Support and Timothy Totten - Youth Tech Support.

Artefact Hunt

This Monday all youth in the community are invited to join Terry Allen on an artefact hunt, at 4:30pm!

Downloadable Music From The Edge

Out of the Woods Vol. 1, a CD produced at The Edge music studio, is now available for purchase from www.21stcenturyartists.com. The music is available to order in CD form for $9.99 US, or downloadable at 99 cents US per song. The first 5 songs on the CD are currently available, and the full CD will be available soon. 21st Century Artists has also agreed to place music from The Edge in its promotional folder, which means that they will act as agents for chosen songs to the music and movie industries. This latest endeavor would not be possible without the generous donation of a Satellite Uplink from Columbia Basin Trust, thank you CBT! These CDs are, of course, available at The Edge.
