The Edge CAP Site Announces New Staff

The next time you visit your neighborhood CAP site The Edge, you will likely notice a new face, Savannah MacCreadie. Savannah is the new staff at The Edge and a technology trainer. She is eager to assist you with all your technology questions and training needs. Regardless of your skill level, Savannah will be able to help you become more comfortable and proficient with computers and the Internet.

Savannah enjoys doing: photography, computers, gardening, and swimming, cooking and baking.

You can do many things at The Edge including creating and using your own email account; searching and surfing the internet for genealogical information or new recipes; online banking; word processing; creating your own blog and emailing pictures to friends and family. Please feel free to drop in during operating hours meet Savannah and learn more about how she can assist you.

Surprise! Prize!

The winner of our Simon Fraser University survey is Clair Hein of Arrow Lakes Grill. Clair's surprise prize is a MP3 player. Brodie Jordan did the draw.
